

DEPARTMENT OF ANIMAL SCIENCE
SPRING 2013 SEMINAR SERIES
 Weir Room 2154 Meyer Hall 12:10pm-1:00pm

DATE	SPEAKER
April 1	No seminar
April 8	KARIN SCHÜTZ AgResearch, New Zealand	Animal Welfare Research in New Zealand
April 15	HANS CHENG USDA-ARS, Avian Disease and Oncology Laboratory, East Lansing, MI	The Role of Transcriptional Regulation in the Genetic Architecture of Marek's Disease Resistance in Chicken
April 22	CHARMAINE ROBINSON UCD, Dept. of Animal Science Exit Seminar: Genetics Graduate Group	Integration of Marek's Disease Herpesvirus into the Chicken Host Genome: Where, When and Why?
April 29	ALEX VAN DAM UCD, Dept. of Animal Science Exit Seminar: Entomology Graduate Group	Species Delimitation and Origins of Domestication in Coccothelpe insects (Dactylopius spp.)
May 6	HELEN SANG Professor, The Roslin Institute, University of Edinburgh	Opportunities and Challenges of Applying Genetic Modification Technologies to the Chicken
May 13	RODRIGO GALLARDO Assistant Professor, UCD, Dept. Population Health and Reproduction	Impact of Gumboro Disease Reassortants in Commercial Chicken Immune System
May 20	AMY DUMAS Wild Horse and Burro Program Manager, BLM- California	Wild Horse and Burro Program: Debunking the "Myth" Information
May 27	HOLIDAY
June 3	NO SEMINAR
June 10	TOM SPENCER Professor, Dept. of Animal Sciences, Washington State University	TBA